

September 2021

Show & Tell

(Sorry, but we were not able to photograph all of the items this month.)

Scrappy Hexagons

Charlotte Runyan

I love hexagons so I used up lots of leftovers to make this.

Cathy Opila Wine Bottle Placemats

Used a pattern from the Hoffman
Fabrics website

Joann Bishop Patchwork & Applique

I made two different small blocks in Mini Maniacs and used them in this quilt. Loved Edyta Sitar's Open Vine & Berries and used this design for the border.

Quilted by Vivien Hawker

Dawn Johnson – Tote Bag

I pattern-tested this tote bag for a friend and love the way it turned out.

Elizabeth Geer Indonesian Batik

A friend from Indonesia brought me this amazing one-of-a-kind batik fabric. It was too beautiful to cut up and it took a year to find the right pattern.

Other fabrics were found at Quilt in a Day. Finally I finished it during COVID with the help of two artist friends who helped with the layout. I did the longarm quilting.

Mary Arter Quails!

This pattern is called "A Gathering" by Barbara Persing. I did it in needle turn applique.

Quilted in a cute avocado motif by Vivien Hawker.

Charlotte Spere

Sun Bonnet Sue – made in 2014. Owner is grand daughter, Maddie Vansell.

Odette Osantowski

365 UFO Blocks

This quilts was made from orphaned blocks and fabric from the 365 quilt.

Odette Osantowski Happy Owl-O-Ween

From a workshop with Pam Hadfield. I reduced the size so that I could hang the quilt in my house.

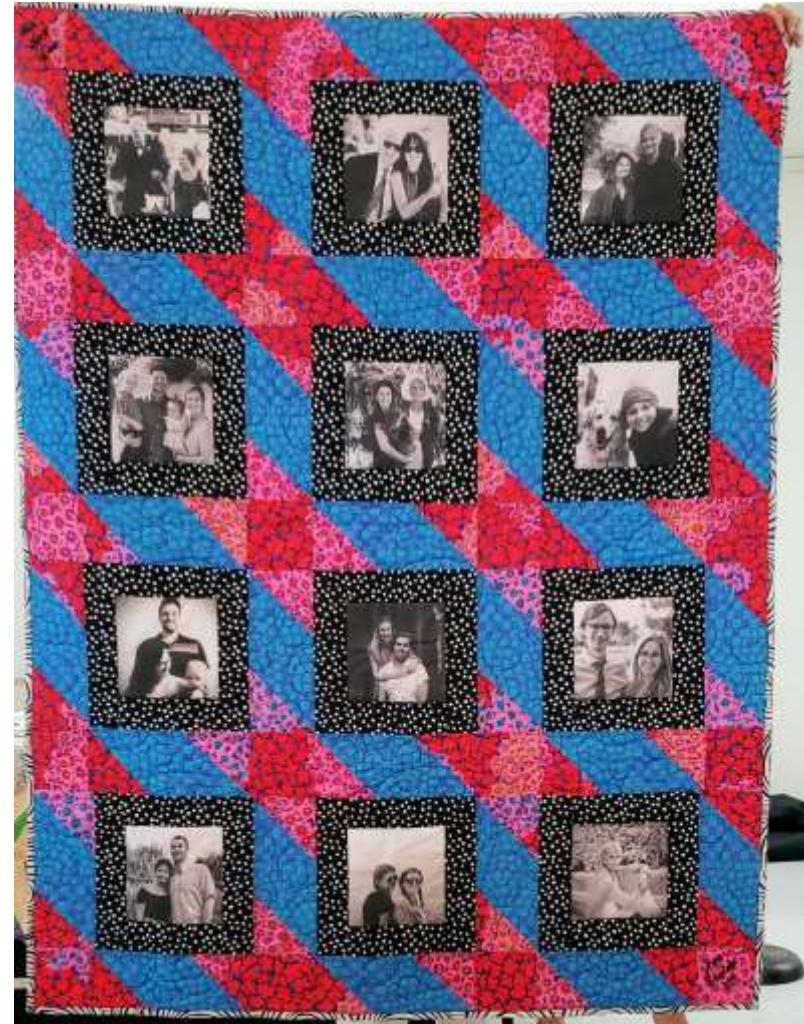

Maddie Vansell Snowball

Maddie is Charlotte Spere's grand daughter. This was made with blue batik fabrics. Quilted by Cosmic Quilting.

Eileen Vansell 90th Birthday Quilt

Made for Charlotte Spere's 90th birthday with black & white photos of the family.
Jay Seidel did the quilting.

Charlotte Runyan Grandmother's Flower Garden

About 30 years ago, I had my high school sewing students work on hand projects. They made these “flowers.” I have finally gotten around to finishing it!

Mary Mulcahey
Celtic Crystals

