MEETING TUESDAY, January 13, 2015

San Clemente Presbyterian Church, 119 N Ave De La Estrella,

San Clemente, CA 92672

9:30 am—10:00 am Sign-in & Visiting Time 10:00 am Program

Lisa Bongean—Primitive Gatherings

Known world-wide for her primitive style in quilting, Lisa Bongean calls Menasha, WI home. This is where it all happens for Primitive Gatherings and the customers that have grown to love Lisa's primitive and folk art designs featuring her hand-dyed wools, home-spun, reproduction and designer fabrics.

Lisa's talents are many; proud mother of 3 sons (Lance, Luke and Jake), designer, teacher, award winning quilter, shop owner, and business woman partnered with her husband, Nick. In addition to the retail shop, Lisa and Nick stay busy with their wholesale and internet business as well as traveling to and vending at numerous quilt shows across the country. Primitive Gatherings, their family-owned business, opened in 2004.

Primitive Gatherings was elected by the editors of American Patchwork & Quilting Magazine as one of the outstanding quilt shops in North America and featured in the 13th annual Quilt Sampler (spring/summer 2006 edition), a special publication from the American Patchwork & Quilter Magazine.

Lisa recently entered into a partnership with Moda and embraces this wonderful opportunity to continue reaching out to quilters everywhere offering them beautiful new fabrics designed especially for creating her primitive and folk art designs. www.primitivegatherings.us

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Linda Ambrosini, lagonaquilts@cox.net, 949 362-4206

Isn't the talent we have in Surfside Quilters Guild amazing? I am always blown away by the ladies who present our Member's Showcase. This month I was in awe of the incredible detail of Kathy Awender's work and the versatility of Julie Vlahos. I must admit I loved Julie's Kaffe quilts but I think my favorite was the "stinky sock" quilt. It just made me smile.

2015 is now upon us and time for making New Year's resolutions. If yours is completing some quilting projects the UFO group is the place to be. We have new chair people for this group. Marjie Butterworth and Cora Schmitt will be heading this group as they start the year. Thank you to Linda Rigidon and Wendy McCalley for chairing this group since its inception.

Members of South Bay Quilters Guild brought an opportunity quilt to our December meeting but had to leave prior to break. If any of you purchased tickets and did not get them turned in before they left, please mail them to: Stephania Bommarito at 18924 Patronelle Ave Torrance CA 90504-5817.

PRESIDENT'S QUILT

Vickie Janis 2010vickie@gmail.com 949-842-6089

The president's quilt is Surfside Quilters Guild's way of saying "THANK YOU, Linda" for the countless hours planning, organizing and helping our Guild to continue to grow. I am soliciting blocks for Linda's quilt; we want YOUR block! I am planning on having a block from every member, whether you are new to quilting or have quilted for 50 years. Blocks are being collected at the meetings in January, February and March. In April the designing, construction and quilting takes place. I can't tell you how much I love my quilt, just knowing how much time and love went into creating it. If possible, let's make Linda's quilt even more amazing.

Linda asked for a Hawaiian Christmas Quilt. I will have some ocean blue fabric 7" squares for you at the meeting. You are welcome to use your own fabrics. We are hoping for bright colors, royal blues, lime green, and red. Think Hawaii, Santa with a lei, holly swim trunks, red & green whales, lighted palm trees. January is a perfect time to catch Christmas fabric, trims or buttons on sale.

The construction committee will trim the blocks 5.5" square so please leave yours oversized. Be sure to sign your block $\frac{1}{2}$ " away from the edge so it will be seen when the blocks are sewn together. I will have pens to use for your autograph at the Guild meetings. Deadline is the March 10th meeting. Don't be left out; every block will be treasured! Beginning quilters to experienced, join the fun. Be sure to sign up for the quilting bees and meet some new friends. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to call or email me.

WORKSHOPS

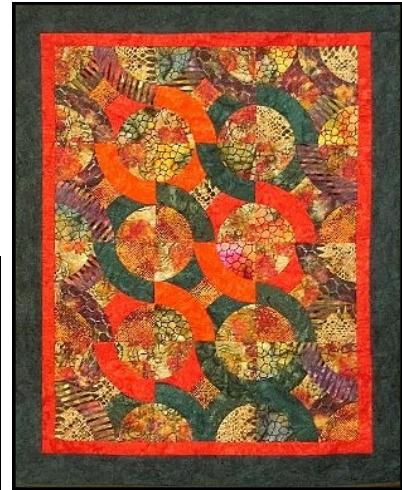

Wendy McCalley wendyanmccalley@cox.net Linda Rigdon alnca@cox.net

On January 14th, Lisa Bongean of Primitive Gatherings presents her "Tulip Baskets" pattern, available in a kit from the teacher. This is a project in wool appliqué, and the kit includes all the wool and homespun backing ($18.00, check made to Lisa Bongean). Lisa's classes at Road to California have been filled for months, so don't miss out on this workshop. Lisa has graciously agreed to take more students in her class, so we still have a few openings. <https://www.primitivegatherings.us/>

You can see samples made by the teachers or their students by going to pinterest.com and entering the teacher's name in the "Search" field.

Judy Sisneros will be teaching us a quilt from her book, Circle Pizzazz on February 11. Here's a link: JudySisneros.com. Doesn't it look like fun? We have the templates ($18.00, check made to Judy Sisneros) as well as the supply sheet. There is some pre-cutting to do, so sign up today and be ready for this class!

MONTHLY MINI Margaret Arnold m.ar@cox.net 949-770-1259

Our January Monthly Mini wall quilt was designed and created by Mary Gorelick. She was inspired by the parrots that fly around Pasadena and Santa Ana. In the morning you can hear them squawk from the wires. She also loves the song birds in her yard. The birds in her mini quilt are fused collage/appliquéd, with a back stitch outline. Mary used Mood's Sweet Serenity line of fabric for most of them because she liked the subtle touch of music. "Sing" is sewn with couched leather cording. This whimsical little quilt is so cheery, it will brighten up your winter days. Be sure to stop by the Monthly Mini table to get your lucky tickets.

Winner of the December monthly mini was our guest Carolyn Jamison (left). The wall hanging and apron were made by Betty Collins (right). The catalog from "The Sky's the Limit"

Thinking of you cards were sent to Nancy Bloyer as she continues treatment for lung cancer and to Mary Jayne Bellamy who recently underwent surgery. We hope to see them back at guild soon! A card was sent to Nancy Ota and her husband Mike who is seriously ill.

Our hard working November Fest chair Betty Collins had knee surgery the end of December, but will be back at Guild in January.

A sympathy card was sent to Katy Lillie and family as they mourn the sudden passing of her younger brother (and only sibling) Matt Higgins. May he rest in peace.

We care so much for our members and wish to acknowledge them in good times and in times of need. Please let me know of any member who could benefit from an uplifting card from the guild. Notification by email is preferable but phone calls are welcome as well.

Katy Lillie showed this "Millennium Star" quilt made in Peggy Martin's October workshop.

Joan Orris made this "Enchanted Holiday" table runner from a Shabby Fabrics kit. The fused, laser cut appliqué is machine satin stitched and the checkered area is stitch in the ditch technique. The quilt makes a cheerful addition to her kitchen table.

Work on some blocks, make a top, practice your quilting, take on a UFO or orphan block project, sew on binding, or make a quilt! Any part of a project is greatly appreciated! Another idea – join us at our monthly meeting!

SUPER SWAPPERS

Joann Bishop bishop370@aol.com

Susie Russell susanrussell2665@gmail.com

We begin the new year collecting PATRIOTIC PRINTS. These of course would have red, white and blue in the fabric. Remember, the more people who participate, the more variety you receive the next month.

A REMINDER OF HOW IT WORKS:

-Wash, iron and cut selvages from 1 yard of good quality 100% cotton before cutting 12 ten inch blocks.

-Put the 12 ten inch blocks in a gallon plastic bag with your name written in large letters at the top. Also indicate that you have included 12 blocks.

WE MUST RECEIVE 12 BLOCKS IN EACH PLASTIC BAG IN ORDER FOR THE SWAP TO WORK. THE WAY THE SWAP WORKS, you most likely WILL NOT RECEIVE ANY OF YOUR FABRIC BACK, SO IF YOU LIKE YOUR FABRIC BE SURE TO BUY A LITTLE EXTRA TO SAVE FOR YOURSELF!

The months ahead will have these themes to collect:

JANUARY: PATRIOTIC

FEBRUARY: KAFFE FASSETT

MARCH: FLORALS

APRIL: BATIKS

MAY: BRIGHTS

SHOW & TELL

Viv Hawker vivienhawker@cox.net 949-218-0347

Joan Orris joanorris@cox.net

.Happy New Year everyone! Our Show and Tell in December was another fabulous showing. We were treated to 19 beautiful quilts, many of them ready to be wrapped and shipped for Christmas. Please bring in your seasonal or newly made projects to our January meeting for all of us to enjoy.

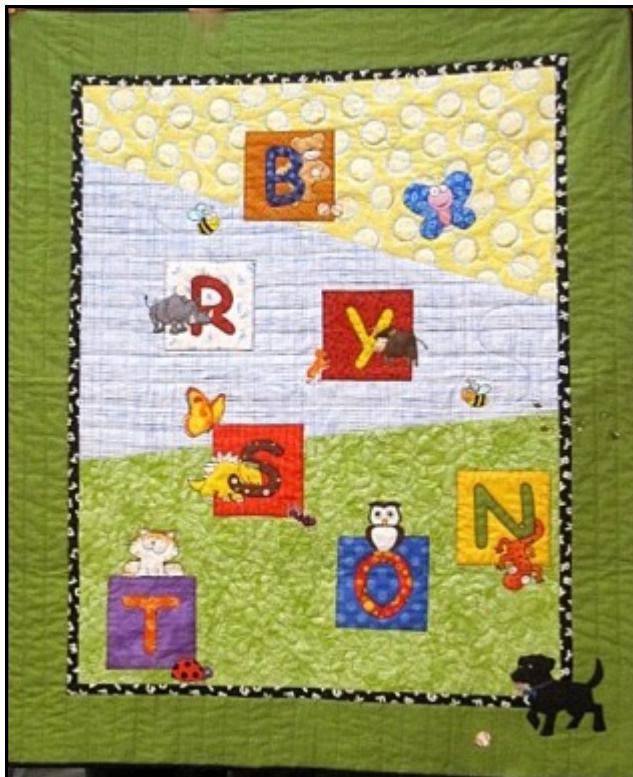

You can print and complete a Show and Tell form from our web page to bring in with your project, or fill one out at the meeting.

Vivien Hawker

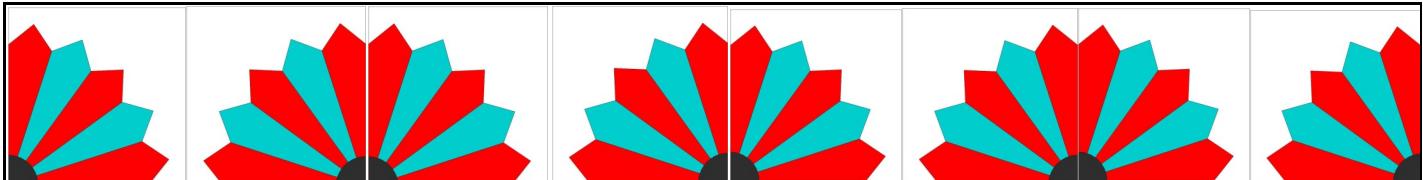

Joan Orris

Jan Hirth made this baby quilt for her niece's baby boy, Bryson, who is due in February. Jan made baby blocks to represent his name: B is for the Cal Berkley Bears, Dad's alma mater; R is for rhinoceros, their dog's favorite toy; Y is for yak which they like to do, S is for Stegosaurus, their favorite dinosaur; O is for owl as they will be very wise parents; N is for newt as there are no other animals starting with N. Their pets, Twix the cat and Luna their black lab are at the bottom of the quilt. Aunt Jan is represented by the ant crawling up the Yak block.

Charlotte Spere had never made a Sun Bonnet Sue quilt and wanted to try it. She also wanted to practice her hand embroidery skills doing the blanket stitch. The easy pattern is from Quilt in a Day. Nancy Burch did a wonderful job on the quilting. One of Charlotte's granddaughters loved the quilt as she was making it, so she will eventually receive the quilt.

"Tree's Up—Lights on" was shown by Odette Osantowski. Pattern from Sandy Gervais' "Pieces From My Heart". You use 10 different colors of red, green and white—cut and shuffle the pieces and sew back together. Odette reduced the pattern by 50% so she could hang it in her entry way.

"Let It Snow" made by Annice Douglas for herself from a pattern by Primitive Gatherings. The wool snowmen are hand appliqued. Annice was visiting her son in Missoula, Montana and he said if she would drop him off at the river for some fly fishing she could shop while he fished. Deer Country Quilts at Sealy Lake is about 30 miles from Missoula. The shop is large and full. When talking with the owner she asked about the shops in the area where Annice lives. When Annice told her so many had closed she suggested our guild put a caravan together and drive to Montana! She said she would be happy to have a couple classes for us. Annice told her she would tell the guild. It is a 17 hour drive.

Barbara Ann Christensen showed "Christmas Trees". About five years ago, she saw this quilt in a shop and had to make it. She loved using all kinds of Christmas scraps. It is a Cozy Quilt pattern and Martha Hurlbut quilted a poinsettia design on it.

Priscilla Hackbarth brought her completed "Millennium Star" quilt done in Peggy Martin's work shop in October.

"Stars and Snowballs" was displayed by Joann Bishop.

Joann began this UFO in a class many years ago, using Civil War prints. Determined to get it finished she found the border and backing and sent it to Nancy Burch for her beautiful quilting. It will go to family friends for Christmas.

Becky McDaniel showed her quilt and pillow which are machine appliquéd and machine quilted. The apron is hand appliquéd and machine quilted by Becky. Hank's quilt is for her grandson Henry; he will be four months this Christmas. His sister Sydney will be three in February. Becky thought it would be fun to give her a pillow with her name on it since her brother's quilt has his name. These kids live in Georgia and Becky will be visiting them for Christmas. She also wanted to give Sydney an apron so that we can have fun cooking together. Can you tell how excited she is to get to spend the holiday with them?

"Guess How Much I Love You" is the name of this quilt made by Katy Lillie. Her son Chris put the book on Amanda's baby registry. She bought the quilt kit at Road2CA before she knew they were having a girl. The book was given at the shower and now the quilt is ready in time for winter. Pattern: "It's A Snap". Nancy Burch did the quilting. It is Katy's 5th finished UFO - only five more to go.

"In Memory of Lenore" was constructed and long-arm machine quilted by Elizabeth Geer. Several years ago she took a class on the French Braid Quilts from the books by Jane Miller. Elizabeth took the class with her friend Lenore who has now passed away. Elizabeth loves the gradations of hues that play off the beautiful focus fabric colors. This pattern was a great way to practice feathers on her long-arm, and she was feeling pretty good about how it turned out. Then a friend from her church quilting group saw it on the machine and said, "Oh, wow, hearts!" Well, so much for her feathers.

Katy Lillie saw this finished quilt on the wall at Sew N' Sew in Glendora. She says it is an awesome shop and the ladies are so friendly. They gave her the pattern, no charge, and she bought all she thought she would need. If she had not been injured Katy would have had it finished by the baby shower, but instead it is for Christmas.

Karen Wendel helped her figure out the scallops—how to attach them in the proper place. Nancy Burch quilted it. It is Katy's 4th finished UFO for this year.

Bette Bradley shows a Silk Ribbon Baltimore Album quilt she made using silk ribbon embroidery in a class taught by Kathy Awender.

The Surfside Quilters Guild, a 501 (c)(3) corporation, was established in March 2009 to promote quilting and other fiber arts in the South Orange County area. The Guild offers the opportunity to share experiences with other quilters in an atmosphere of fellowship, as well as to enhance the knowledge and skills of its membership. Newsletters are distributed via the Internet. Dues are $30.00 annually for the membership year from May 1st through April 30th. Guests are always welcome for a donation of $5.00. Membership and Volunteer forms are available on our website:
