May Message

A new Guild year is about to begin and I am looking forward to serving and working with this incredible Guild. I love the friendliness and the dedication to wanting to serve. I love the generosity shown to those we serve, i.e. Camp Pendleton, CHOC, Orangewood, A Case of my Own, fire victims, etc. I love being a sharing and caring Guild.

I would like for everyone to feel welcomed. Susie Russell will be helping us "Get to Know" our new members by having a few highlights printed in the newsletter with a picture each month of our new members. Make sure you introduce yourself to them. Look for the white leis they will be wearing.

I look forward to this year because of November Fest, which is such a fun and special event to plan and attend. The committee is working hard on creating another great Fest so you can invite your friends. Let's help them by making some items to be sold.

I look forward to this year because of our Guild Challenge, "Let's Face It." As you know, I love a challenge. It gets those creative juices flowing and it's a good exercise for your brain. It's "sew" much fun to see what everyone makes, whether it be a quilt, an object, or wearable. Maybe even a doll or a stuffed animal. The sky is the limit.

In May we have a new "Block of the Month" brought to you by Holly Betz and Judy Kamman. They always find something fun for us!.

I look forward to working with you and seeing what our Guild can accomplish this year.

Congratulations Pam!

May Program

Our new calendar year for Surfside Quilters Guild begins in May.

At the May meeting we will be presenting Jeanette with her very much earned President's Quilt. I have to say, she is going to absolutely love it and be pleased.

As I was using a long-arm to quilt the squares on her quilt, I was so tempted to call Jeanette and tell her how fantastic it is. The team of quilt makers have really shown how much our Guild appreciated all her hard work this past year. We have been blessed to have her and all the love she shows to every member.

Note: Since I get the privilege of finding speakers as we move forward, please pass on to me any suggestions. Pam has an exciting line-up of speakers upcoming, I hope to do the same.

Bankson Hall at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church

Please wait for the door to open at 9:00 am

(Driving directions may be found at the end of the newsletter.)

ELEVATOR: Park at the lower end of the parking lot and walk through the garden maze. Below the old sanctuary is an elevator. Select the 3rd floor and it will take you to Bankson Hall.

Please be cautious and polite as you leave the church parking lot after Guild meetings.

We depart at approximately the same time the pre-school dismisses their little ones.

Membership - Karen Hanway & Cathy Harris

Our April meeting, featuring Robin Pickens was very well attended. Looking forward to seeing everyone again at our meeting in May.

Will Be Donated to The Wildcat Sanctuary in Sandstone, Minnesota

I purchased this panel 5-6 years ago. I found the smaller wildcats in a panel I cut apart to create the borders. I was lucky to find the Kaufman animal pelt fabrics which were donated samples. Jay Seidel quilted it and I'm thrilled with how it turned out. Now all I have to do is sew on the binding with help from my neighbor, Lynn Low, who has a special attachment on her machine which means no hand sewing!

"Faces" from Jean Impey's Class

Some shared stories:

Linda: "Sunshine loved the Sixties. She loved the family community, the working together, and the protests to make the world a better place. But eventually the group moved on and she was left wandering. Then she found Laguna Woods where they celebrated Woodstock, held protests in their golf carts, and partied all the time."

Jeanette: "Jeanette doesn't like to wear shoes."

Judy: "Margo, could never decide what to wear. Do I dare go out with a flare do I dare put purple with pink? What will the occasion be tonight?"

Mary: "Elsbeth was walking in a meadow one day when she came across a troupe of dancing flower fairies. She asked if she could join the dance. The fairy queen told her she would have to become a fairiy in order to dance. Elsbeth was enchanted and has been dancing with the fairies ever since."

Let's Get To Know - Susie Russell

We are happily reinstating the "Let's Get to Know" article in the newsletter for 2025-2026.

Our focus this year will be on new members. Each month there will be a short paragraph about each new member. It will be short and sweet, easy to read and also include the photo for you to get to know this new interesting person! Please read about each new member and make an effort to connect at the following meeting.

It is a wonderful feeling for new members to feel welcome and included in an established guild. Let's make them feel right at home!

Celebrating with her were some of her "Mini Maniacs" friends.

From Sharon Whelan: Our beautiful friend, Lynn Tweet, was feted for her birthday at her new residence in South OC by 50+ friends and family on Saturday, April 12. A delicious buffet and a mouth watering strawberry and cream birthday cake were enjoyed outdoors on the patio on a perfect spring day. A harpist provided a lovely musical backdrop for Lynn and her guests. What a memorable celebration! Happy Birthday, Lynn!

"Thinking of You" cards were delivered to Pattie Sexton, Deb Warren, and Maggie Bell who is recovering from recent eye surgery. Best wishes to these lovely ladies!

We are so sorry to learn of the passing of Gloria Rose's husband. A sympathy card was sent to Gloria and her family. May he rest in peace.
