October Message

What a fun day we had with Dru Farrell from Sew Treasured in Murrieta. She brought sew many fun items for her Pop-Up Shop. My pocket book enjoyed it very much!! She has a wit unlike anyone I know. She always can bring out the funny side in any situation. We loved seeing her family's hand stitched, hand quilted antique quilts. What a treasure to have.

Now what is the message I want to share with you this month? Hmmm... I want you to know how much I am enjoying working and being with you ladies of the Guild. You brighten my day with your kindness, your generosity, your interest in serving others, and your creativity. We are asking a lot from you right now with November Fest and the December "Give Back" meeting. And you are stepping up to the plate beautifully by making both of these events for our Guild the very best they can be.

I again want to remind you that each one of you is an advertiser for us. Help us get the word out about our upcoming Fest. There are so many people who don't sew or know how to make these items that we are offering, so they love to have the opportunity to buy them for gifts for their family and friends.

We will have lots of great choices to make at our unique Boutique. Test your bidding skills in our Quilt Auction with 30 quilts to choose from. Who will be the winner of those Silent Auction items. And last, but not least is Baskets galore. Which one will be yours? This will be a November Fest that you do not want to miss. Bring your friends, tell your neighbors, share our flyers with anyone and everyone you see! Have a great month and we'll see you at our October Guild meeting.

Join us for lunch with Hanne after the Guild meeting at Carlos Mexican Restaurant and Cantina at 34224 Pacific Coast Highway in Dana Point. Text or call Pam Hadfield to RSVP 949-285-5389.

Bankson Hall at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church

Please wait for the door to open at 9:00 am
(Driving directions may be found at the end of the newsletter.)

ELEVATOR: Park at the lower end of the parking lot and walk through the garden maze. Below the old sanctuary is an elevator. Select the 3rd floor and it will take you to Bankson Hall.

We want to be good "neighbors" with the Pre-School that is in session at the same time as our Guild meetings.

Please follow these guidelines regarding the parking lot and leaving Guild meetings early:

- The Pre-School dismisses at 12:00 noon. If you plan to leave early, please leave before 12:00 or wait until after 12:15 to depart.
- Please park only on the outside curve of the parking lot. This leaves the parking places nearest the building open for the Pre-School.

October Program - Sherri Peltier

Meet the Maker: Hanne "Mama" Lohde

Hanne (Mama) Lohde's love for stitching began at the age of five, sitting on the floor of her mother's sewing room. While her mom worked on a summer dress, little Hanne stitched a tiny dress for her doll—and she's been stitching ever since.

As a teen, she created much of her own clothing and even sold her knitwear during college. Over the years, stitching, storytelling, and designing by hand have become not just creative outlets, but lifelong sources of joy and relaxation.

In 2020, during the quiet of the pandemic, Hanne brought her long-held dream to life: she designed her very first wool story quilt and founded Mama Lohde—a creative studio built on sharing the magic of slow stitching, wool appliqué and thread-based storytelling. Since then, she has been teaching her special embroidery techniques to other stitchers in her Open Stitch with Mama Lohde classes as well as teaching at retreats nationally and overseas. She has won many awards and recognitions of her unique work.

In 2023, Hanne also became a published author with her children's book, Bubbles—a whimsical tale rooted in her love for storytelling and endangered sea life. She lives in Southern California with her family and beloved dogs and continues to design, teach, and inspire others to create from the heart—one stitch at a time.

Happy Stitching,

Hanne (Mama) Lohde www.mamalohde.com

Volunteer Coordinator - Monica Shafer

Thank you to those of you who have already signed up to volunteer for November Fest!
Your contributions will make a big difference in its success.

Feeling FOMO (fear of missing out)? Not to worry, there are still opportunities to volunteer. We still need Guild members to sell raffle basket tickets. The more the merrier. Since this is our major fund raiser, we need cashiers to take in all those wonderful funds!

Volunteers will be needed to hand out auction paddles. During our auction we'll need a few more volunteers for holding and folding the quilts. We could use another person as a spotter to make sure the auctioneer doesn't miss any bids. A small commitment can make a big difference. Thank you in advance for all you do to make our Guild awesome! monicaeshafer@gmail.com 949-933-6345

From Mary Arter - Live Auction

We're still looking for volunteers to help with the Live Quilt Auction, as follows:

Set-up—help hang the auction quilts the morning of November Fest

Auction—take quilts down one by one as they come up for auction. Hold each quilt up during the bidding, then fold and place into its bag.

Auction Recorder—record the winning paddle number and bid for each quilt

Auction Runner—deliver the auction claim check to each winning bidder

Please contact Monica Shafer to volunteer.

Let's Get to Know - Susie Russell

This month we have a very interesting new member to meet:

MARIA GOMEZ-GREENBERG

Maria grew up in Colombia spending Sundays at her grandmother's home. After lunch the grandchildren, aunts and uncles would either play chess or gather around the sewing machine. This was Maria's introduction to sewing. But it wasn't until Covid hit that Maria took up quilting. She said she was desperate for something creative and productive which led her to a most interesting idea. She generously made quilts for each of her daughter's kindergarten students, personalizing them to each child based on their interests, love of color or games. As Maria finished each quilt they were mailed to her daughter's classroom in Texas. Be sure to meet Maria at the next meeting.

Debbie Myers Nova Star Quilt By "Then Came June"

I bought this quilt kit at QuiltCon in Phoenix last February because I loved the pattern and especially the colors. It was a pain to make! So many flying geese and points that must not be chopped off.

I also got bored and started swapping out the block colors so it wasn't so matchy matchy. Karen

Wendel quilted it and did a wonderful job of bringing it to life

We are a Guild where quilters feel welcome and meetings include: world-famous quilt artists, workshops that teach us new and interesting techniques (while being super inexpensive!), and our philanthropy is second to none. How do we do it?

From the formation of this Guild members have shared their time and resources to make us what we are today.

So Surfsiders, this is it. November Fest is just two meetings away and it's time to make a plan on how we will each spend a 30 minute shift making our bi-yearly fundraiser a success. A 30 minute shift will still allow for plenty of time to enjoy the Fest while contributing to our success. There will be sign-ups at the October Guild meeting, so talk to your quilt bestie and sign up for something together. Here are some of the volunteer opportunities available:

Quilt Auction - Set up, auction paddle handouts, helping Mary during the auction

Basket Ticket Sales - 30 minute shifts selling tickets, volunteers to label baskets with winning tickets and move them to the collection area.

Cashiers - 30 minute shifts

Facilities - Direct people to elevators, parking, shuttle guests to off-site parking across the street.

Questions? Comments? Call/text /email Monica Shafer, monicaeshafer@gmail.com (949) 933-6345.

Thank you, Surfsiders!

From Our Own Nancy Ota...

NANCY OTA PATTERNS

Sewing was the necessity that became a passion. After we returned from the internment camps following WWII, my talented Mother, a trained tailor made our clothes by cutting out photos in the newspaper and copying the designs. During the lean years it was a way to make my own clothing and clothing for my family.

In the eighties, I was embroidering shirts, making clothing and quilts as gifts for various family celebrations. Someone told me about Orange County Quilters Guild. That first meeting got me hooked. The President was Del Thomas, the walls had show and tell, there was a library, and various functions to learn and become involved.

Suzanne Stanton was teaching quilting at the Adult Education school in San Juan Capistrano. She taught me everything from drafting to efficient ways to create quilts. A friendship group grew out of those classmates. After driving to Orange for guild meetings, we decided we needed a guild in south OC. In 1992 we created Beach Cities Quilters Guild. As we aged and retired, we created a day guild, Surfside Quilters Guild.

Along the way, I taught various quilt techniques at Leah's Fabric Gallery and then to quilt guilds in California and Arizona. I created various things to teach, I started a pattern business. My son Chris helped with the diagrams. Friends generously tested my instructions and suggested ways to improve the patterns. Judy Yamazaki returned from Japan for a visit and brought with her a bag using a see through mesh bag. This fabric was not available here, but someone suggested using screen that was available at the hardware store. We began making bags out of this mesh. My "Screen Play" pattern developed. In the past 24 years I have sold over 121,000 patterns. My patterns include bags, quilts, and sashiko patterns.

I retired from working as a dental hygienist at 70 and from traveling with trunk shows and teaching quilting at 80. But, I remain addicted to quilting and still pack and ship patterns. Our recent endeavor is to sell digital patterns online. My patterns are available to download and print.

Quilters are the BEST!

I am sew grateful for the wonderful people and support.

Flying Geese Quilters Guild
David Taylor Workshop
"Humming Bird" Appliqué
Sunday, October 12, 2025

10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Orange Quilt Bee

Flying Geese Quilters Guild is inviting Surfside members to participate in a workshop, "Humming Bird" Applique with David Taylor, Sunday, October 12, from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m.

David Taylor is renowned for his fabric-based art quilts that closely resemble paintings. His process—using layered freezer paper templates, expert color placement, and meticulous hand stitching—allows quilters to create vibrant, realistic wildlife scenes.

This one-day "Hummingbird" class provides a hands-on opportunity to learn his award-winning technique in detail.

A kit is required for this class which costs $30. The kit includes all pre-washed fabric needed for the block, fat-quarter background, pattern, full-color instructions, freezer-paper templates and tracing paper for placement guide.

You don't have to bring your sewing machine or choose fabrics. All you need is a few items which you probably have at home.

$50 for the class + $30 for the kit = $80

You can sign up for this workshop by contacting Gail Larderuccio at glarderuccio@gmail.com.
